JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

OLD AGE.

To convey something like a true idea of the chances against living to extreme old age, the following statements by the two eminent physiologists, Hufeland and Haller, may be referred to. According to Hufeland, out of every hundred born, fifty, or exactly one-half, die before ten. In the next decade between ten and twenty, twenty die. Between twenty and thirty, ten. Between thirty and forty, six. Between forty and fifty, five. Between fifty and sixty, three. It follows, then, that out of the original hundred, only six remain who stand a chance of living beyond sixty. Haller has industriously collected 1,115 instances of persons who have lived above 100 years; and, according to him, the duration of their respective lives was as follows: 1,000 lived from 100 to 110, 62 from 110 to 120, 29 from 120 to 130, 15 from 130 to 140, 5 from 140 to 150, and only 2 beyond 150, viz., Old Parr and Jenkins. Amongst the circumstances that favor longevity, climate is prominent, and the sort of climate most favorable to longevity has already been indicated. Diet comes next in order, and this should be moderate but nourishing. A rainy atmosphere in a cold climate does not seem insalubrious, otherwise Ireland would not number and have numbered such an array of old people; not to state that a considerable proportion, perhaps the greatest of English and Scottish patriarchs have resided in the western and hence the rainiest counties. The physique of an individual, his size and shape, is an important consideration. Neither the very big nor the very small are usually long lived. Very tall people are not so likely to be long lived as people of medium height. Tallness often originates in the disproportioned growth of some one part of the body, a circumstance conducive to weakness. Nor is this all to be alleged against extreme tallness. Very tall persons are apt to ac quire a habit of stooping, whereby the vital organs are compressed. Persons of medium height rarely stoop, and usually they are more active than tall persons. Medium sized and short persons have this however, to be set down to the debtor side of their account. They are prone to corpulence, a condition unfavorable to longevity. Physiologists tell us that the endurance of animal life mainly depends on the extent of thorax and moderation of the heart's impulse. Neither the easily excited nor the easily depressed are commonly long livers. Intense study is known to be unfavorable to long life. Out of one thousand seven hundred and twelve persons who lived about a century, Fontelle—who did not quite reach one hundred years—is the only an hor of note. His temper was remarkably tranquil. His buoyancy of spirits—youth of old age, as the French call it—remained to the last. The physiologist Blumenbach has made a graphic sketch of the progress of human life onwards to the grave. Having traced it up to manhood, of this he says, it is the longest and noblest epoch of life. Our nature is then at its highest perfection. The bodily functions are most vigorous and regular, and that noblest prerogative of the mind, a mature judgment, is established. Advancing in years the powers of life decrease. Then comes old age, dulling the senses external and interna. The hair grows white and thin; the teeth gradually drop out; the head droops upon the neck; the body upon the legs; even the bones beginto waste. Thus do we come to the extreme point of physiology, death without disease, the euthanasia of old age. Then the extremities grow cold, the eyes grow dull, the pulse bears low and small, sometimes intermittent. Next the breath stops and returns, stops for ever with one long forcible expiration. Bluemenbach came to the conclusion that there is no period which can be said to be entitled by its marked regularity and frequency to be considered the natural term of advanced old age. What he was able to collect on that point, from comparison of a vast number of bills of mortality, was that in Europe no inconsiderable number of old men reach their eighty-fourth year, whereas few get beyond it and that from one cause or other only one in every seventy eight human beings in a thousand can be said to die in the condition of enthanasia. Bluemenbach himself, it may be here remarked, died in the beginning of 1840, aged eighty eight, having retained his faculties to the last. Up to a very short time before his death he continued to lecture with all the spirit and humor that had ever characterized him.

SORROW.—Sorrow sobers us and makes the mind genial. And in sorrow we love and trust our friends more tenderly, and the dead become dearer to us. And just as the stars shine out in the nights, so there are blessed faces that look at us in our grief, though their features were fading from our recollection. Suffering! Let no man dread it too much because it is better for him, and it will help to make him sure of being immortal. It is not in the bright days but only in the solums, that other words are to be seen shining in the long, long distances. And it is in sorrow—the night of the soul—that we see the farthest, and know ourselves natives of infinity and sons and daughters of the most High!

FAILURE NOT DEFEAT.—If ever failure seemed to rest on a noble life, it was when the Son of Man, deserted by his friends, heard the cry which proclaimed that the Pharisees had drawn the net around the Divine victim. Yet from that very hour of defeat and death, there went forth the world's life; from that moment of apparent failure, there proceeded forth into the ages the spirit of the conquering Cross. Surely, if the Cross says any thing, it says that apparent defeat is often real victory, and that there is a heaven for those who have nobly and truly failed on earth.

THINGS I DON'T THINK ADVISABLE.—I don't think it advisable for one nice girl to say to another that her beau is not all nice.

I don't think it advisable for a man to be always telling his second wife about "the dear angel that's dead."

I don't think it advisable to coincide too strongly with people when speaking disparagingly of themselves.

I don't think it advisable to commence a story with "I am going to tell you a remarkably good thing."

I don't think it advisable, after praising a mother's dear darling baby, for the mama to catch you g lancing a it.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of study and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experiments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practicably, without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed; in short, this invention brings the luxurious and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light, of the ordinary chamber-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find ready sale in every county, so family that uses this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps three-weeks of them will be used in cities, as this light is one-half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

The Lamp can be seen in full operation durning the day and evening at the Yarbrough House.

All letters will receive prompt attention and full explanation of the Lamp given.

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE CIRcle Saw Mills in workman-like manner for those desiring them.

There are now 400 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position, gives the backward and forward motion to the carriage, with a single lever; and set the log at both ends at the same time, this is a saving of one hand in the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles south of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

P. J. WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 2nd to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

Mr. P. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular Saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a log 14 inches deep, 30 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.

Dec 23rd 1869. AL. RIDGE FARTIN.

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the old Mill on 45 inch saw and same water wheel.

P. YATES,
JAMES PENNY.

This last mentioned Mill may be seen on Walnut Creek, 5 miles South of Raleigh.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

The question of personal privilege in parliamentary law, takes precedent of all other questions. When a member rises to his privilege every other question and business is suspended. Moore of Chowan, Cuffy Mayo, of Granville, and Rev. James Sinclair, of the devil's kingdom, by way of Lumberton, have recently had their privileges on the floor of the House. Cuffy's style is neither so grammatical nor eloquent as that of his brother members, but he is always more parliamentary; he thinks it unbecoming a law maker to indulge in billingsgate, such as "liar," "scoundrel," "coward," &c.

When charges and imputations are made upon the character of Cuffy, he appeals to the record for his vindication, and shows that he was acquitted by a jury of his country. He never so far forgets the respect due to himself and the House, as to be betrayed into the use of unparliamentary language.

We quote from the Standard's remarks of Parson Sinclair to show the difference between a black "gentleman" like Cuffy Mayo, and a white blackguard like Parson Sinclair.

The Parson says:

"Had Mr. Turner believed that I was an unfrocked minister of the Gospel he knows himself too well to treat me as he does now. He would moderate his transports as he has done in the case of my friend Moore of Chowan, Treasurer Jenkins and others. I am not an unfrocked minister, he presumes on my situation knowing if I should attempt to inflict upon him the chastisement which he deserves, I would certainly be very summarily unfrocked.

I do not know whether my friend from Chowan has said, what the mendacious editor of the "Sentinel" charges him with, in relation to myself, I leave that between them to settle. I will, however, assure my friend from Chowan, and also the editor of the "Sentinel" that I have enough personal pride and respect to avoid obtruding myself on any one who is not desirous of intercourse with me."

As he has left the remarks of "his friend from Chowan to be settled by that member and the SENTINEL," we must be candid and tell the Parson his friend from Chowan used no such language. He said this, he "should not have cared so much for what the SENTINEL said of him, if he had not coupled his name with that d—d scoundrel, Sinclair." We preferred to omit your friends profanity in the publication of his justly entertained, but roughly expressed, estimate of your character.

We make this correction as we did the one about Colonel Moore voting against telegraphing for Swepson and Littlefield; though there is no necessity for the one or the other. We were sufficiently accurate in both; in the one we omitted "cuss" words, of which Sinclair should not have complained; in the other we misstate Mr. Moore's speeches and quibbling questions against investigation for his vote.

Parson Sinclair, drinking at Pepper's, was heard to say he could whip any man who said he insulted ladies on the train, and he denounced as liars all who said he had.

We say he did insult ladies on the train. Mr. Phil. Sasser has and will say so; Mr. S. was about to chastise him for it.

The Parson, we are told, talked about shooting Mr. Sasser, and said, if Mr. S. were to shoot him he would be hung, but if he was to kill Mr. S. he would be pardoned. How radical rascals do rely upon the Radical Governor! This little incident brings to mind Gen. Estes, in publicly offering pardon to the man who would shoot Jo Turner in the back.

As to the Parson's not obtruding himself in company where he is not wanted, we can only say, ten days ago, after indulging in very unparliamentary language about us on the floor of the House, he smiled and spoke when we met him. We were forced to tell him that we did not allow a man to denounce us one day and speak to us the next.

This disgrace to his species appeared at our office door, that very day, and asked if he could come in. We told him emphatically, "no." He said "I wish to speak with you." We said, "no, you shall not." "But," said the Parson, "I can explain the whole matter." We repeated, he should not. "Then you will not let me come in?" "No," we said, with a stamp of the foot on the floor, and the cur walked off. We shall add nothing more except, that he is worthy to lead the House. We wonder his merits were overlooked in making a Speaker!

HO! FOR CONGRESS.

The following are said to be the only prominent candidates for Congress from this Congressional district, so far as heard from, on the Radical side, viz: Kilgo Lassiter; Lightningbug Cook; Castalian Pike; ex-Confederate Major, Militia General and Revenue Collector, Wiley D. Jones; Jeems Harris, (colored,) "My son Joe," the little god of turpentine; John S. Hyman, (colored,) Phat Phil. Hawkins; and bullet-headed Williamson of Franklin, (col.) Some say Moring has a great propensity for going to Congress, also, but we don't know how about it.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

On yesterday the bill abolishing the office of State Printer passed the House by a decided majority. It having previously passed the Senate, is now a fixed law.

But what of that? It is merely making the pig turn loose the teat, until the sow can change position, when he will take hold again.

We look for the announcement of a new firm at the Standard office, in a short—very short time. Who the next man of straw will be there is, at present, no intimation. We think there will be more difficulty in "hiring a boss" for the establishment than formerly, on account of the short tenure of the organship it is likely to enjoy. The present state of affairs there presents a fine opening for some young man of enterprize who wants to make money, regardless of consequences.

GONE GLIMMERING.

W. P. Thompson, tax collector of Pitt County, started to Raleigh some time ago, to settle with the Treasurer, but Foley, the Sheriff, failing to hand over to him a certain amount that he had used of the taxes, he concluded not to go back home; so he has gone somewhere else. He wrote a letter to the Expositor stating the fact that he should not return, and giving his reasons therefor, intimating pretty plainly that Sheriff Foley had drawn from his hands and used a considerable amount of the taxes collected in the County.

The Expositor, in commenting on the letter calls on the County Commissioners to give an account of the money that had been paid over by Thompson, and from the tone of the comments, it seems doubtful whether they will be able to do so.

The only clearly defined and certain fact standing out prominently is, that a considerable portion of the money paid by the people of Pitt, in the shape of taxes, is "gone glimmering," "where the woodbine twineth."

On motion of Mr. Vest, the rules were suspended, and the bill in relation to the corporation of Salem, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Pearson, the rules were suspended, an the bill legalizing certain official acts of the late county Court, was taken up and passed its several readings.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill consolidating the Atlantic and North Carolina R. R. Company, and the North Carolina R. R. Company, was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Gunter moved to lay on the table the motion to reconsider.

The yeas and nays being called, the House rejected the motion by a vote of yeas 13 nays 58.

The motion to reconsider was then put to a vote and adopted.

Mr Malone offered the following substitute for the bill:

SEC. 1. That it shall be lawful for the Stockholders of the North Carolina Railroad Company, at a meeting to be called and held as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, according to the charter and by-laws thereof, to transfer to the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad Company all that portion of the North Carolina Railroad between Goldsboro' and the passenger depot at Raleigh, with all the rights franchises and privileges and owned and possessed by the said road therein.

SEC 2. That at such meeting the following propositions shall be submitted to the Stockholders of said North Carolina Railroad Company:

1. That the State purchase from the private Stockholders their entire interest in that portion of said North Carolina Railroad Company lying between Raleigh and Goldsboro'. That the State transfer to said private Stockholders as an equivalent for their stock in said portion of said Railroad an amount of stock in the North Carolina Railroad in the proportion of one share of State Stock for every six shares of private stock in said road.

2. That in case the transfer mentioned in the first section of this Act is consummated, the Atlantic & North Carolina R. R. Company shall issue to each private Stockholder one share in said Road for every five shares such Stockholder held in the North Carolina Railroad Company.

That whichever of said propositions receives the votes of the majority of private Stockholders shall have the force and effect of law, provided that if the second of said propositions is adopted it shall be first submitted to the Stockholders of the A. & N. C. R. R. Company.

SEC. 3. That the State Proxy in the N. C. R. R. Company is hereby instructed to vote for the transfer provided for in the first section of this Act.

SEC. 4. That as soon as is practicable after the passage of this act and the acceptance thereof by the North Carolina Railroad Company, a meeting shall be called of the Stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, to consider the said transfer herein provided for, at which meeting the State Proxy is instructed hereby to vote for its acceptance.

SEC. 5. The said transfer shall not affect further than may be provided for in Section 2, hereof the rights of the private Stockholders in the North Carolina Railroad, but said Stockholders shall retain their 1,000,000 of Stock in said Road, with all the rights and privileges therein now existing, and in addition thereto, shall receive the additional Shares, either in the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad, or in the North Carolina Railroad, provided for in Section 2 of this Act.

SEC. 6. That if not sooner called a meeting of the Stockholders of the N. C. R. R. Company shall be held at Greensboro' on the —— day of ——, 1870, for the purpose of considering the transfer herein provided for.

The substitute was adopted.

Mr. Argo moved to amend section 2 by striking out sub-division 1 and insert the following: "That the State relinquish 10,000 shares of the N. C. R. R. and the Atlantic & N. C. R. R., issue to the State 10,000 $100 shares in its Road, and upon which the State shall be allowed to vote at Stock meetings in the same proportion as the State now votes upon its Stock in said Road.

Mr. Durham opposed the amendment, and was also, opposed to the bill.

After some debate, Mr. Gunter moved to lay the whole matter on the table.

The yeas and nays being called, the House rejected the motion by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Blair, Carson, Cawthorn, Durham, Ellis, Forkner, Gatling, Gibson, Gunter, Hicks, High, Hodgin, Hodnett, Jarvis, Kelly, of Moore, Leary, Long, of Chatham, Moore, of Alamance, Painter, Proctor, Proffitt, Renfrow, Robbins, Robinson, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Martin, Sweet, Vestal and Welch—29.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ames, Argo, Armstrong, Banner, Barnett, Boddie, Carey, Clayton, Davis, Davidson, Dixon, Foster, Franklin, French, Gilbert, Graham, Green, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Kinney, Malone, Mayo, McCanless, McMillan, Mendenhall, Morrill, Morris, Nicholson, Pearson, Peck, Pou, Price, Reynolds, Seymour, Shaver, Sinclair, Simonds, Smith, of Wayne, Snipes, Stanton, Stevens, Sykes, Thompson, Vest, White, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett and Wilson—47.

Mr. Pou moved a reference of the matter to the Judiciary Committee, and make special order for Wednesday next at 12 o'clock. Carried.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill (Senate) to abolish the office of State Printer.

Mr. Sinclair wished to hear from the committee appointed to investigate the alleged mismanagement of the public printing.

Mr. Ames for that Committee, said that they could only report progress. The Committee have been at work every day, but would not be able to report for some time yet.

Mr. Sinclair spoke in opposition to the passage of the bill.

The yeas and nays were called and the bill passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 60, nays 14.

Mr. Mendenhall, moved to suspend the rules and put the bill on its third reading.

The motion to suspend the rules was put to a vote and adopted by a vote of yeas 55, nays 18.

The bill then passed its third reading by the following ballot:

YEAS.—Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Ashworth, Bissett, Blair, Boddie, Bowman, Carson, Carey, Clayton, Davis, Davidson, Durham, Ellis, Forkner, Gatling, Gibson, Gilbert, Green, Harris of Franklin, Harris of Wake, Hayes, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodgin, Hodnett, Ingram, Jarvis, Kinney, Leary, Malone, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore of Alamance, Nicholson, Painter, Pearson, Pou, Proffitt, Ragland, Renfrow, Robinson, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith of Alleghany, Smith of Martin, Smith of Wayne, Snipes, Stanton, Stevens, Sweet, Sykes, Thompson, Vestal, Welch, White, Whitley, Williams, of Harnett and Wilson.—61.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ames, Crawford, Dixon, Foster, French, Gunter, Huffman, Kelly of Moore, Long of Chatham, Mayo, McCanless, Morrill, Peck, Proctor, Sinclair and Simonds.—17.

On motion of Mr. Malone, the rules were suspended, and the bill (Senate) in aid of investigation ordered by the Senate, into the affairs of certain Railroad bonds, by resolution ratified on the 24th of January, 1870, was taken up (referred to the Committee on Finance and unfavorably reported upon).

Mr. Sinclair approved of the spirit of the bill, but as a Republican, was opposed to laying his head on the block to be decapitated by a Democratic committee. In his opinion the committee was engineered by certain Republicans, who were disappointed in spoils and were now endeavoring to destroy the Republican party.

Mr. Malone wished to know if an investigation into alleged frauds, would be likely to result in the destruction of the Republican party.

Mr. Sinclair replied no, but he wished the investigation conducted in another manner.

Mr. Durham.—Did you not four days ago declare that two Democrats would be convicted of corruption to one Republican, an assertion that you (Sinclair) knew to be false when you made it?

Mr. Sinclair continued by saying that in a few days he would retire to get proof to substantiate his assertions, &c.

Mr. Durham said that he would shortly move for the Committee of the Whole, and have the gentleman from Robeson (Sinclair) placed on the stand, and have certain presents of horses and watches thoroughly investigated.

Mr. S. denied ever receiving presents of horses and watches.

Mr. Durham.—I have heard it and believe it.

Mr. Sinclair again denied the truth of the report, and continued his remarks for sometime against the bill, and charged that the whole thing was concocted and would be used for political purposes.

Harris, of Wake, col., moved to have the bill printed. He wanted a day certain for the committee to report.

Mr. French favored the motion to print. The Senate had acted rather discourteously towards the House in this matter, for it was due to the House that they should be consulted in the examination of all public matters; he also thought the House had also acted wrongly in resolving itself into the Committee of the Whole to examine into these matters without consulting the Senate, &c.

Mr. Pou favored the immediate passage of the bill, it contained no objections to a real supporters of investigation. He explained the provisions of the bill.

Mr. Durham said, that all these motions to print &c., seemed nothing more than a determination to defeat investigation, as a majority of this House had done on several occasions &c. He called for the yeas and nays on this motion to postpone and print, so that the people might see who it was that sought by every means to stave off by all kinds of tactics, every proposition to go into an effective investigation of these huge swindles which have been perpetrated upon the State.

Thos. Sykes, col., was in favor of all kinds of investigation, but wished to have a definite time fixed for the Committee to report.

Harris of Wake, withdrew his motion to print and offered an amendment requiring the Committee to report by the 10th of March.

Mr. Bowman wanted to know what assurance the gentleman had that the Legislature would be in session on the 10th of March: he hoped the House would adjourn before the 1st of March.

Mr. B. was in favor of the passage of the bill without the least delay.

Mr. Vest favored the bill with the proposed amendment.

Pending any definite action the House adjourned.

SUPREME COURT.

[Reported for the SENTINEL by the Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court.]

Friday, February 11th.—Court assembled at the usual hour, all the Justices present.

The following cases were called and argued:

Hunt vs. Sneed, Granville. Argument concluded by Bragg for defendant.

Clark vs. Clark, Northampton. W. W. Peebles for plaintiff, Batchelor for Defendant.

Calvert vs. Williams, Warren. Batchelor for plaintiff, Bragg for defendant.

Vaughn vs. Carstarphen, Northampton.—Remanded.

Harris vs. Sloan, Wake. R. W. York moved for a certiorari. Motion granted.

This case involves the right of the Superintendent of Public Works to appoint Directors in the Wil. Char. & Rutherford R. R. Company.

In the case of William Biggs, ex-parte, the Chief Justice announced the decision of the Court on the preliminary question as to the proper remedy argued by counsel on yesterday. The opinion of the Court is in substance as follows:

1. The Petitioner did not have the right to appeal.

2. The proper remedy is by writ of certiorari, in the nature of a writ of error, to bring up the record now remaining in the Superior Court of Edgecombe County, so that the record may be reviewed, and such proceedings be had thereon as are agreeable to law.

The matter involves the power of a Court to protect itself against the wrongful act of an Attorney of the Court; and also the right of an Attorney of the Court, to be protected against error, in the exercise of power on the part of the Judge.

The writ of mandamus, being a high prerogative writ, will not be resorted to, if there be any other remedial writ that will answer the purpose. In this instance, the Court should be reluctant to resort to it: for it would not be seemly unless there existed a positive necessity for it, to command a Judge of the Superior Court to appear at the bar of this Court, and contront in an adversary suit, one who has been an Attorney of his Court, and now demands to be restored to that privilege—another objection to the writ of mandamus, is that the Court in granting it, assumes that prima facie, His Honor is in the wrong:—and the order restoring the Petitioner to his rights as an Attorney, could not have the legal effort of reversing the order in the Superior Court, but would simply be in disregard of it.

The action of this Court will be either to affirm or reverse the order in the Court below.

Per Curiam—Motion for notice to show cause why an alternative mandamus shall not issue, refused.

Motion for a writ of certiorari, in the nature of a writ of error to bring up the record for review, allowed. The writ will be returnable forthwith.

Court adjourned until to-morrow, 10 A. M.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.—On last Friday, about dusk, at Rockingham, Richmond county, a man by the name of Jas B. Long went into the store of Mr. James W. Dawkins and got into a dispute with him about money matters, and words ran high between them. Finally, however, it was decided that legal measures should be instituted by which the difficulty would be settled. Long then walked out of the store, and was soon after followed by Dawkins, when the former suddenly drew a pistol from his pocket, pointed it at Dawkins and fired, the ball taking off one of Mr. D.'s fingers. Not content with this, Long again fired on his victim, this time putting a ball through his leg. Still unsatisfied, and before persons in the vicinity could interfere to prevent it, Long made the third attempt on the life of the unfortunate man, but, as luck would have it, the pistol refused to go off. By this time the crowd of bystanders had closed on the infuriated man and his pistol was taken from him. In the meantime Mr. Dawkins had entered a store near by, suffering severely from the wounds he had received. But he was destined to suffer still further brutality at the hands of his opponent, who, as soon as he was released by the crowd, rushed into the store where Mr. D. had taken refuge, with a drawn knife, pounced upon his victim and stabbed him in the jaw, inflicting a fearful wound. Before he could fully carry out his murderous intentions, however, Long was again seized and this time taken to jail.

We learn that Mr. Dawkins, who is highly respected in his neighborhood, was for some days thought by his physician to be fatally injured, but at last accounts was slowly recovering.

The question of lynching Long was at first seriously considered by the friends of the wounded man, but happily better counsels prevailed, and the law will be allowed to take its course.—Star.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1870.

☞ Jno. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

New Ads.—G. T. Stronach; hams and Mullets.

Devlin & Co.; Readymade clothing, large establishment, New York.

The Governor to Littlefield and Swepson sends greeting, and notifies them to report according to act of Assembly.

The Market House.—J. P. Prairie makes a splurge in the Standard of yesterday, about the notice we took of the Market House taking fire on Wednesday. We don't care a bawbee for the billingsgate used concerning the notice we took, but as a public journalist, we did what we conceived to be a duty, as shall again, when occasion requires.

We stated three or four months ago, when the walls of the Market House were going up and the timbers being put in, that it was unsafe; we say so yet; and the fire on Wednesday proves we were right.—Every pair of flues in the building has the end of a joist between them with only a single brick for protection, while the wood let into the wall to which the brackets are fastened, render the liability to fire still greater. But if the Board of Commissioners and the tax payers can risk it we can.

Personal.—We omitted to notice as we intended, the presence in the city, this week, of brother Biggs, of the Tarboro' Southerner; who petitions the Supreme Court to grant a mandamus requiring Judge Jones to reverse or abolish his rule, forbidding Mr. Biggs to practice law in his Court. The matter was ably argued before the Supreme Court, on Thursday, by Gov. Graham and B. F. Moore, Esq., and it is thought by those who heard them, that the Court will grant the petition.

That any man should suffer anything for entertaining contempt for Jay-Bird Jones, is wonderful.

P. S. The opinion of the Court has been given, and will be found under the Supreme Court Reports.

St. Valentine.—Next Monday is St. Valentine's day, when birds choose their mates, and bashful lovers couch confessions in beautiful billet doux, half concealing, half revealing, the wounds that Cupid has made in their hearts. Wonder how many of our young friends will seize the opportunity on Monday of sending sweet missives to the "one particular,"—how many sweet maidens will offer themselves as valentines, and get husbands, or being refused, content themselves with a pair of gloves, otherwise, "get the mitten!".

J. A. Jones, Fayetteville street, advertizes valentines to suit all tastes and sentiments.

The Rescue Fire Company.—We learn from a circular or address to the citizens of Raleigh, laid on our table, that Messrs. John C. Gorman, W. C. Stronach, Samuel Merrill, Wm. E. Pell, Jr., M. W. Churchill and Stanhope Pullen, have been appointed by the Rescue Steam Fire Engine Company, a committee to wait on the citizens and receive subscriptions or donations for the purchase of an Engine.

The arguments in favor of a liberal subscription on the part of all interested in city property, are too plain and strong to need elaboration. The inefficiency and fewness of the engines now in use, the necessity of better facilities for arresting fires, and the consequent decrease in the per centage on insurance, all appeal to those interested, to come down with "the dust" handsomely, and enable the company to equip themselves fully for efficient service in time of need.

It is reported in this county that Mr. Durham opposed reducing the per diem of the members of the Legislature in order to keep them from raising it to $10 per day. This is a weak charge, notwithstanding the official source from whence it came; and if he had done so, it is no excuse for others who are now trying to make fair weather for the August election. These latter-day saints, who after the deviltment is done, and on the heels of the session of the Legislature, are so loudmouthed for retrenchment and reform, it sounded to the bottom, would be found, like father Blythe and his Dutchman, "only joking!"

Whatever may be the source of the report alluded to in this extract, so far as Mr. Durham is concerned it does him injustice. He has invariably favored every effort made to reduce the enormous per diem of members of the Legislature, honestly and in good faith.

Just Out.—Cherry Pectoral Troches, superior to all others, for Colds, Coughs, Sore Throats, Bronchitis and Hoarseness. None so pleasant, none cure so quick.

dec 23-dkw3m.

Plows.—We learn that Mitchell, Allen & Co., of Newbern, N. C., have procurred Steel Cotton Sweeps, made from the original patterns of David Dixon, Esq., of Georgia, they charge $5 for each, when stocked $7.

This firm is selling a large quantity of plows manufactured by themselves. They sell No. A. 8, 10, 11, and 50 plows at 2.50. Would it not be well for farmers to club in each neighborhood and order together so as to get the freight cheap. Mitchell, Allen & Co., have the agency for the Foster Cotton Planters, and every variety of agricultural implements. 6im, Dead! Dead!! Dead!!!—The Standard says Democracy is dead; we have heard of "dead ducks," "dead cocks in the pit," "dead as Hector," and "dead notes," and various other dead things; the latest phase, most pat and applicable, is that applied by the Western Vindicator to Radicalism in this State, namely "a dead buzzard." Good! The carcass being laid in state, the Wilmington Post has dug its grave, and the Rutherford Star is preaching its funeral, while the Standard man has prepared his onions, all ready to cut a decent figue as chief mourner.

We don't know who will administer on the estate, but it is understood that Littlefield and the "Ring," are principal legatees, having already received the portion of goods which fell to their share, and "jounеyed into a far country."

For the Sentinel.

Not Far-Away, Feb. 10, 1870.

Mr. Editor:—In the Summer of 1868, one Gen. Littlefield ran a doggery in Farris's office in the Capitol; you had a great deal to say about this, from time to time, and the public think properly so. It is believed you induced Farris to run them from his quarters. But you have grown tame.—Two doggeries are now run in full blast in the Capitol—one in the Senate in Ball's room, and in the House in Bonner's room; I do not know at whose expense; but I do know that there is any amount of drinking in the Capitol. I merely drop you this line to let "Mars. Tod," and "my son Joe" know that these whiskeries exist in the people's House.

Yours,
CONTINGENCIES.

We don't go about the Capitol much, on account of Moring, and was not aware of the existence of the facts as stated by "Contingencies." We have no doubt it is all true, and we now prophesy, and let the people remember it, that about the close of the session there will be a resolution introduced and passed, giving Clerks or Doorkeepers, or both, an extra appropriation to pay the bill.

It may be the "Ring" at work again, but we should think it very unfair in Littlefield to spread two free bars in the Capitol and not pay his printers.

Wayne Superior Court.—On Monday last—(no; on Tuesday last; Superior Courts don't open on Mondays, now-a-days,) the Superior Court of Wayne opened in Goldsboro. On Wednesday, the "Ku Klux" prisoners, as they are called, from Lenoir county, were before the Court. The Goldsboro' Messenger says:

At about 11 o'clock, A. M., the cases were called up, Mr. A. Monroe's being the first on Docket; but the solicitor got feeling disposed to enter into trial at this term Mr. Monroe and Jesse Kennedy were recognised in the sum of $10,000 each and all of the other defendants in the sum of $1,000 each. Mr. Elias Carr becoming the surety of Mr. Jesse Kennedy and Mr. J. C. Wooten for Mr. A. Monroe. None of the parties found any trouble in giving their requisite bonds for their appearance at the next term of Wayne Superior Court. Thus, the great Ku Klux affair stands for another six months.

We commend the following to the prayerful consideration of all political Judges. If any veneration be left for the wise and good, it will have a good effect every way:

"A biography of the late Chief Justice Taney is in course of preparation by Mr. Samuel Tyler, of Georgetown, D. C. Shortly before the death of Mr. Taney he placed in the hands of Mr. Tyler a collection of papers and documents relating to his private and official life, that gentleman having long been his confidential friend, and having signified a desire to write the volume which is soon to make its appearance.—From one of Judge Taney's letters we quote the sentence: "A judge of the Supreme Court ought never to be connected with the parties and politics of the country. If he should, he will certainly destroy his own usefulness on the bench, and the court itself will be finally brought into the political arena."

Singular and Fatal Accident.—We learn that Jas. Clapp, son of Jerry Clapp, Esq., of this county, was killed last Friday, in the neighborhood of Brick Church by a tree falling on him. The particulars, as near as we can get them, are: That Mr. C. had started to the woods for fuel, and while on his wagon, a large hickory tree was blown down and fell on him, breaking his neck, back and head. He was found, it is supposed about an hour after the accident happened, lying on his wagon, the horses having remained quietly in the road, apparently having not attempted to move after the tree fell. The deceased was a young man of good character, aged about 25, and leaves a wife and one child.—Greensboro Patriot.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Butler's bill in addition to conditions heretofore published, provides that removal of disabilities shall not affect property lost, captured or destroyed by the army of the United States. There is also an amendment excluding army and navy officers from the benefits of the bill.

In the Supreme Court to-day the point was argued whether the government is responsible for the value of property when seized, or only for the amount realized and in the Treasury.

Revenue to-day $277,000.

In the House Mr. Rice, of Ark., introduced a bill to encourage the establishment of a line of steamers to European ports, and to ports of India, China and Japan, and to promote emigration to Southern States.

The Secretary of State was interrogated why the Spanish government paid certain claims in legal tenders instead of gold, as was stipulated by the treaty of 1864.

Senate.—The appropriation bill to supply deficiencies in the navy Bureau, was amended so as to read three millions, passed and goes to the House for concurrence. The Mississippi case was considered. The debate was mainly devoted to personalities. The question before the Senate is on admission pure and simple. Adjourned without action.

The President is quoted as saying that the report of the 1st review between himself and the radical Georgians, was exact in some respects. He (the President) considers that the question of the Senators belongs to Congress.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Feb 1.—In the House the Judiciary Committee reported adversely to a resolution referred to it at the late session in October, proposing the re-ratification of the 14th and 15th amendments.

Jas McDonald was elected Secretary, of State and W. F. Taylor, 1st Auditor.

An excursion party of twenty gentlemen, including several members of Congress, arrived here this afternoon.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Feb. 11—This morning's Sun has the following:

"The President, to-day, pronounced all reports which have represented him as expressing any opinion on the merits of the Georgia situation or against either of the contesting delegations now here, as simply untrue. He reiterated what he has before declared, that it was a question, especially the Senatorial part of it, that belonged entirely with Congress, and he did not propose to interfere with it. He confessed his surprise that gentlemen should seek an interview with him on the matter and then go away and misrepresent it.

The Banking and Currency Committee are examining Grant's kitchen Cabinet regarding the gold panic.

In the Senate Sherman introduced a resolution that the U. S. recognize the belligerent rights of war between Cuba and Spain and observe a strict neutrality. Sherman said that the people would not stand the government's indifference much longer; there was a deep feeling in the West on the subject. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

The question of the abolishment of the franking privilege was resumed.

To Cotton and Tobacco Planters and Corn and Peanut Growers.

"The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano Company's."

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO.

PRICE $60 PER TON OF 2,000 lbs., AT NORFOLK VA.

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Lieberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

J. J. Horton of same State, writes to the same import. Our Circular for January 1870, contains these and other certificates in full.

Orders promptly attended to, addressed to any of our leading Commission Merchants or to Gen'l Agents office over Gwaltney Bros. & Co., new Warehouses on Town Point, Norfolk, Va.

PRATT'S "ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell while burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest Illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 1 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. Every package with uncut seal we warrant. Be sure and get none but the genuine article, Pratt's "Astral" Oil, for sale by dealers everywhere, and at wholesale and retail by the proprietors

A New Discovery!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

Phalon's "Vitalia" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction, of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

MEDICAL.

HENRY'S

CARBOLIC

CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR,

OR

BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the family as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all infirmities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions and Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Worms of Virulity, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villainous diseases. Vaccination was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of man, sometimes without disease, and both be one in mind alike. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and know not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparts a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye,
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all Sides.

For all affections of the kidneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbus, Mo., I suffered tortures with running sores since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. Mycomplexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"For yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5. Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, RETENTION OF THE URINE, &c, And for Female Diseases, Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

DE SOTO MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI.

JAMES H. LUCAS, President.

CAPITAL STOCK, (PAID UP,) $150,000.00!

Stockholders bound for Double the Amount of Stock!

$100,000 DEPOSITED WITH THE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF MISSOURI.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James H. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coast wise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16.84
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21.09
UNIVERSAL,	27,94
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; for last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
